Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement Policy

- ✎ Our clients, suppliers, and agencies are all expected to adhere to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and should have in place a policy recognising, respecting and protecting the human rights of their employees, those of their suppliers and business partners and the communities affected by the suppliers' operations.
- ✎ Employees should be free to choose to work for their employer and to leave the company upon reasonable notice.
- ✎ All employees must be treated in a fair and equal manner and with dignity and respect.
- ✎ Any form of discrimination, victimisation or harassment on the grounds of marital or civil partnership status, sex (including gender reassignment), race (including colour, ethnic and national origin, nationality), disability, sexual orientation, having or not having dependents, religious belief or political opinion, age, trade union activity and offending background should be prohibited.
- ✎ We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.
